

My Name is Craig Flores and I am thrilled to be here at Literacy First Charter School teaching 5th grade and it is an honor to be the teacher of your child. I love to teach and I have been at it for 24 year in many settings and with many cultural groups.

A little more about me, I was born into a U.S. Navy Family in Yokosuka, Japan. I have lived in Hawaii for 5 years and have moved in many cities in Southern California. I am fortunate to have a personality that has enabled me to adapt to new situations quickly.

I am married and my wife is a teacher too! We have two boys and a girl as well as 4 grandkids. Yes, our house can be a busy place sometimes. I also have a dog named Torito and a desert tortoise named freckles.

I grew up predominantly in San Diego and I graduated from San Diego State University with a B.A. in Liberal Studies and earned a Masters Degree in Education Curriculum instruction. I am also Orff trained in music instruction for voice, instrumentation, and movement. I plan to use every tool I have to bring the best learning experience to my students.
